

Why pay for compressed air when an Atlas Copco GA can pay for itself!

Atlas Copco is pleased to offer 0 % financing for Industrial GA and GAVSD products through the end of December 2006.

Let the energy savings of the Industry leading Atlas Copco GAVSD and 0% financing not only pay for the compressor, but also put money in your pocket.

Independent industry studies indicate:

- Most compressed air applications have a varying load demand
- Compressed air equipment typically operates at 60% of full load capacity.
- The energy savings of the GAVSD combined with the 0% financing allows your customer's energy savings to fund the purchase of the compressor over 36 months and also creates extra revenue. . If a Full Feature with integrated Filters are also included, the energy savings are further increased, due to reduced pressure drop, system leaks etc..
